

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

PRE-READING: ANTICIPATION GUIDE

Statement	Agree or Disagree?	Explain your answer.
When people are afraid, they imagine they hear or see things that aren't there.
People are usually afraid of the same things as other people.
Insane people cannot distinguish between what is real and what is not.
People who are insane usually know that they are insane.
Sometimes we want to hurt the people we love.
If you commit a crime, you are guilty, no matter your mental state.
If you commit a crime, you will eventually get caught.
When you do something wrong, it can be agonizing waiting to get caught.
Some criminals do not feel any guilt for the crimes they commit.

AFTER READING – Do not complete until your teacher directs you to.

Statement	My Original Agree or Disagree	Agree or Disagree AFTER Reading
When people are afraid, they imagine they hear or see things that aren't there.
People are usually afraid of the same things as other people.
Insane people cannot distinguish between what is real and what is not.
People who are insane usually know that they are insane.
Sometimes we want to hurt the people we love.
If you commit a crime, you are guilty, no matter your mental state.
If you commit a crime, you will eventually get caught.
When you do something wrong, it can be agonizing waiting to get caught.
Some criminals do not feel any guilt for the crimes they commit.

Choose one answer that changed after reading. Explain what in the story made you change your opinion.

---

---

---

---